* If you are not able to carry out your ministry please arrange cover using the separate contact list. This should not be the person already reading on that day.

* If there is no psalmist/ cantor, the first reader will need to read the responsorial psalm. If the gospel acclamation is not sung, the second reader will need to read the acclamation.

* You should approach the lectern at the conclusion of the collect for the first and second reading.

* The second reader will always read the Bidding Prayers.

* You should approach the lectern and move into position during the creed for the bidding prayers.
